Sunset Beach Hotel  2027

General Description

Crete, the biggest island of Greece is the crossroad between three continents. The island with important history and invaluable archaeological findings is divided in 4 districts, each one with its own history. The district of Heraklion is in the middle of the island offering a lot of sights, such as the ancient city of Knossos and the museum of Heraklion with archaeological treasures, cosmopolitan villages but also villages for a quiet and enjoyable vacation, where someone can admire nature in its greatness.

Sunset Beach Hotel is situated in the village of Kokkini Hani, just 12 km east of the capital Heraklion. The hotel owns its name to its excellent location, offering you situated directly on the sandy beach, magnificent sunsets in relaxing atmosphere. Cretan hospitality and warmth but also very good quality of service can provide people who seek for quietness and serenity a unique experience.

Because of its central location Sunset Hotel gives its guests the possibility to reach all destinations very easy and quickly. Only 3 km away you can visit the biggest Aquarium of the Balkans. Moreover there is a public bus station in front of the hotel, where from you can easily start for excursions in all directions. In the village centre of Kokkini Hani there are many cafes, bars, taverns, restaurants and shops, for everything you could possibly need. If you want to have a closer look at the Cretan nightlife, Chersonissos, which is only 10 minutes drive from the hotel, is the right place. There are numerous bars and discos, offering fun all night long.
